acts of the Local Legislature of Madras.

In pursuance of the provisions of sub-section (3) of section 51 of the Government of India Act, the following Act of the Local Legislature of Madras having been assented to by the Governor on the 21st March 1935 and by the Governor-General on the 18th April 1935, is hereby published for general information :—

ACT No. XXI OF 1933.

THE MADRAS NAMBUDDHI ACT.

As Act to define and amend in certain respects the law relating to family members, marriage, guardianship, intestate succession and partition applicable to Newborn Babies and certain other communities, not governed by the Meynathakutsum law of inheritance.

Whereas it is expedient to define and amend in certain respects the law relating to family management, marriage, guardianship, intestate succession and partition applicable to Nambudri Brahmans and certain other communities, not governed by the Marumakkathayam law of inheritance,

And whereas the previous sanction of the Governor General has been obtained to the passing of this Act;

It is hereby enacted as follows:—

CHAPTER I.

PRELIMINARY.

Short title and application.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Madras Nambudri Act, 1933.

(2) It shall apply—

(a) to all Nambudri Brahmans in the Presidency of Madras who are not governed by the Marumakkathayam law of inheritance; and

(b) to all Nambudri Brahmans outside the said Presidency, not governed by the said law, in respect of immovable property situated within it.

Definition.

2. In this Act, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context—

(a) 'amandavan' means any member of the ilom other than the karnavan;

(b) 'ilom' means all the members of a Nambudri joint family with community of property and includes a 'manu';

Explanation.—A female shall on her marriage cease to be a member of the ilom in which she was born and become a member of the ilom of her husband;

(c) 'karnavan' means the eldest male member of an ilom in whom the right to management of its properties vests or in the absence of a male member the senior female member;

Explanation.—The seniority as between two or more females, who become members of the ilom by marriage, shall be determined according to the dates of their marriage;

(d) 'major' means a person who has attained eighteen years of age; and

(e) 'minor' means a person who has not attained eighteen years of age.

CHAPTER II.

ILOM AND ITS MANAGEMENT.

Proprietary right of members in ilom
properties.

3. (1) Every member of an ilom, whether male or female, shall have an equal proprietary interest in its properties.

* (2) Such proprietary interest shall not in any manner be applied or affected by reason of the deviation of such member from any orthodox custom or usage.

4. The karnavan shall keep true and correct accounts of the income and expenditures of the ilom. The accounts of each year shall be available for inspection at the ilom house by the major ammalakans once in a year throughout the month of Karam following such year and any such ammalakan may take copies of or extracts from such accounts.

Copy of accounts to be kept correctly.

5. (1) Except for consideration and for ilom necessity or benefit and with the written consent of the majority of the major members of the ilom, no karnavan shall sell immovable property of the ilom or mortgage with possession or lease such property, for a period exceeding twelve years.

Alienation of immovable property by karnavan.

(2) No mortgage with possession or lease with premium redeemable wholly or in part, of any such property executed by a karnavan for a period not exceeding twelve years shall be valid unless such mortgage or lease is for establishment and for ilom necessity or benefit.

(3) Nothing contained in this section shall be deemed to restrict the power of the karnavan to grant, in the usual course of management, for a period not exceeding twelve years, any lease without premium redeemable wholly or in part, or the renewal of an existing lease.

6. No debt contracted or mortgage without possession executed by a karnavan shall bind the ilom, unless the debt is contracted or the mortgage is executed for ilom necessity.

Debt contracted by karnavan
shall not bind the ilom.

7. Every member of an ilom, whether living in the ilom house or not, shall be entitled to maintenance consistent with the income and the circumstances of the ilom.

Maintenance
of members
of ilom.

8. Any karnavan may by a registered document give up his rights as karnavan.

Relinquishment of karnavan-
ship.

CHAPTER III.

MARRIAGE.

9. Notwithstanding any custom or usage to the contrary, every major male Kaimudri shall, subject to the provisions of section 5 of the Madras Marriage Act 1904.

Right of Kaimudri male to marry is the customary.

Act, 1932, and any other law for the time being in force, be at liberty to marry in his own community.

Right of any Nambudri female to have her marriage
performed and recover the marriage expenses and dowry.

10. (1) Any unmarried major female member of an Ilom who marries, or has her marriage with a male belonging to her community performed with her consent by her father or any other member of her Ilom, shall be entitled to recover from the Ilom properties, the reasonable expenses of such marriage as well as her dowry:

Provided that not less than three months' previous notice in writing of the marriage shall be given to the karnavan.

(2) The amount recoverable under sub-section (1) shall not exceed one-third of the value of the share which would fall to such female member if a division per capita of the properties of the Ilom were made among all the members thereof living on the date of the marriage, or rupees ten thousand, whichever is less.

The provisions of this Act shall also apply to the following communities in the Malabar district who are not governed by the Marumakkattayam law of inheritance and who follow customs and usages similar to those of the Nambiar, namely, Adikal, Piyada, Neeradi, Pithara and Nambiar. Application of the Act to certain communities.

In pursuance of the provision of sub-section (3) of section 81 of the Government of India Act, the following Act of the Local Legislature of Madras having been assented to by the Governor on the 21st March 1933 and by the Governor-General on the 12th April 1933, is hereby published for general information:—

ACT No. XXII OF 1933.

THE MADRAS MARAMAKKATTAYAM ACT.

An Act to define and amend in certain respects the law relating to marriage, guardianship, intestate succession, family arrangement and partition applicable to persons governed by the Maramakkattayam law of inheritance.

WHEREAS it is expedient to define and amend in certain respects the law relating to marriage, guardianship, intestate succession, family arrangement and partition applicable to persons governed by the Maramakkattayam law of inheritance;

AND WHEREAS the previous sanction of the Governor-General has been obtained to the passing of this Act;

It is hereby enacted as follows:—

CHAPTER I.

PREAMBLE.

Enacted by the Legislature of Madras.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Madras Maramakkattayam Act, 1933.

(2) It shall apply—

(a) to all Hindus in the Presidency of Madras who are governed by the Maramakkattayam law of inheritance;

(b) to all Hindus outside the said Presidency governed by the said law, in respect of properties within it; and

(c) to all Hindu males, whether governed by the said law or not, who have contracted or may contract marital alliances with Hindu females governed by the said law.

Enacted by Madras Act
19 of 1933.

2. The Mahomed Marriage Act, 1896, in so far as it is applicable to Hindus following the Maramakkattayam law of inheritance, is hereby repealed.

2. In this Act, unless there is anything repugnant to the context in the subject or context—

(a) 'marumakkattayam' means any member of a thread other than the karuvai;

(b) 'Collector' means the Collector of Malabar or South Kanara, as the case may be, and includes any Revenue Divisional Officer who is authorized by the Collector to perform his functions under this Act;

(c) 'karuvai' means the eldest male member of a thread or tavathi, as the case may be, in whom the right to management of its properties vests or, in the absence of a male member, the eldest female member or where by custom or family usage the right to such management vests in the eldest female member, each female member;

(d) 'major' means a person who has attained eighteen years of age;

(e) 'marumakkattayam' means the system of inheritance in which descent is traced in the female line but does not include the system of inheritance known as the Aiyamukku;

(f) 'marumakkattayam' means a person governed by the Marumakkattayam law of inheritance;

(g) 'minor' means a person who has not attained eighteen years of age;

(h) 'prescribed' means prescribed by rules made under this Act;

(j) (i) 'female' used in relation to a female means the group of persons consisting of that female, her children and all her descendants in the female line; and

(ii) 'tavathi' used in relation to a male means the female of the mother of that male.

CHAPTER II.

MARRIAGE AND ITS CONSEQUENCES.

4. (E) Save as provided in section 5, the conjugal union of a marumakkattayam female with—

(i) a male belonging to the same community as such female, or

invalid under this Act.*

(ii) a male, not belonging to such community and whether a marumakkattayal or not, shall be deemed for all purposes to be a legal marriage if—

(a) the parties to the union are not related to each other in such degree of consanguinity or affinity that consensual union between them is prohibited by any custom or usage of the community to which they belong or either of them belongs, and

(b) the union—

(i) was openly solemnized in accordance with the customary ceremonies, if any, prevailing in the community to which the parties belong or either of them belongs, before the date on which this Act comes into force and is subsisting on such date; or

(ii) is so solemnized in accordance with such ceremonies on or after the date on which this Act comes into force and, where either or both the parties are minors, with the consent of the guardian or guardians of such minor or minors, or

(iii) was registered as a marriage under the Mahabar Marriage Act, 1836, before the date on which this Act comes into force and is subsisting on such date.

(3) A consensual union between minors or between a minor and a major which would otherwise be a valid marriage under sub-section (1) shall not be deemed to be invalid merely on the ground that the consent of the guardian or guardians of such minors or minor was not obtained to the union.

(3) Notice of every marriage contracted on or after the date on which this Act comes into force shall be given by such person, to such authority, in such form and within such time as may be prescribed. Failure to give such notice shall be punishable with fine which may extend to fifty rupees but such failure shall not invalidate the marriage or affect the legal rights of the parties to, or the issue of, such marriage.

5. (1) During the continuance of a prior marriage which is valid under section 4, any marriage contracted by either of the parties thereto on or after the date on which this Act comes into force shall be void.

(2) On or after the said date, any marriage contracted by a male with a marumakkattayal female, during the existence of a prior marriage of such male, shall be void, notwithstanding that his personal law permits of polygamy.

6. A marriage valid under section 4 may be dissolved as follows—

(a) by a registered instrument of dissolution executed by the parties themselves; or

(b) by an order of dissolution to be granted as provided:

Provided that if either or both the parties is or are minors, the marriage shall not be dissolved until after the party has become a major or both the parties have become majors, as the case may be.

7. (1) A husband or wife may present a petition for dissolution of the marriage—

(i) if the place where the marriage was contracted or the respondent has a permanent dwelling or actually and voluntarily resides or carries on business or personally works for gain, at the time the petition is presented, is situated within the local limits of the jurisdiction of the Court of a District Magistrate, in such Court;

(ii) if such place is not situated within the local limits of the jurisdiction of the Court of any District Magistrate, in the Court of the Subordinate Judge or if there is no such Court, in the Court of the District Judge, within the local limits of whose jurisdiction such place is situated; and

(iii) if such place is situated within the local limits for the time being of the ordinary original civil jurisdiction of the High Court of Madras, in the Madras City Civil Court.

(2) The petition shall specify the place where and the date on which the marriage was contracted and if the respondent was a minor at the time of the marriage, the name and address of the guardian, if any, with whom cohabited the marriage was contracted.

8. A copy of such petition shall be served at the expense of the petitioner on the respondent.

9. On the motion of the petitioner made not earlier than six months after the service of the copy as aforesaid, if the petition is not withdrawn in the meantime, the Court shall, on being satisfied after such inquiry as it

MAINTENANCE AND GUARDIANSHIP.

Maintenance
of wife and minor children.

13. (1) The wife and minor children other than married minor daughters under the guardianship of their husbands, shall be entitled to be maintained by the husband or the father, as the case may be:

Provided that the wife shall not be entitled to maintenance from the husband if she refuses to live with him without just cause.

(2) Nothing contained in sub-section (1) shall affect the right of any person to maintenance from his or her husband or husband's properties.

(3) In awarding maintenance under sub-section (1) the Court shall have due regard to the means and circumstances of the person against and by whom maintenance is claimed and to the reasonable wants of the person claiming maintenance.

Guardianship of minor wife
and children.

14. The husband shall be the guardian of his minor wife in respect of her person and property and, subject to the provisions of section 15, the father shall be the guardian of his minor children, other than married minor daughters under the guardianship of their husbands, in respect of their person and property:

Provided that such guardianship shall not extend to the right and interest of the wife or children in respect of their husband or husband's properties.

It is provided further that nothing contained in this section shall apply to a female member of any of the bands included in the Schedule or her children, where such female member resides in her own household and not with her husband.

15. The mother shall be the guardian of the person and property of her issue children if their father is dead or the average of their parents is dissolved.

Guardianship of issue children by female deceased or dissolved.

16. Nothing contained in sections 14 and 15 shall be deemed to affect the operation of the Guardians and Wards Act, 1890.

Saving of the effect of the Guardians and Wards Act, 1890.

CHAPTER IV.

Provided that the reasonable funeral expenses of the intestate shall first be deducted from such separate or self-acquired property.

(3) The property devolving on the relations referred to in sub-classes (a), (b) and (c) of clause (ii) of sub-section (1) shall be distributed among them in accordance with the rules contained in clauses (a), (vi), (iv) and (v) of section 29 and Explanations I and II to that section.

31. (1) The senior male member among the children and other lineal descendants through deceased daughters of the intestate or in the absence of any such male member the widow, or if there is more than one widow, the senior among such widows, shall be entitled to possession and management of the property referred to in sections 19, 21, 22 and 26 until division is effected.

Devolution of property and management of property until division.

(2) In the case of the property referred to in section 30, if the intestate has left relations who are heirs according to the personal law by which he is governed, such heirs shall be entitled to possession and management of the property until division is effected.

(3) The karnavan of the tarwad mentioned in sections 23, 24, 27, 28 and 29 shall be entitled to possession and management of the property referred to therein until division is effected.

CHAPTER V.

TARWAD AND ITS MANAGEMENT.

Date of Enactment to keep tarwad.

32. The karnavan shall keep true and correct accounts of the income and expenditure of the tarwad. The accounts of each year shall be available for inspection at the tarwad house by the major anandavans once in a year throughout the month of Karam following each year and any such anandavan may take copies of or extracts from such accounts.

Alteration of immovable
property by
karnavan.

33. (1) Except for consideration and for tarwad necessity or benefit and with the written consent of the majority of the major members of the tarwad, no karnavan shall sell immovable property of the tarwad or mortgage with possession or lease such property for a period exceeding twelve years.

(2) No mortgage with possession or lease with premium returnable wholly or in part, of any such property executed by a karnavan for a period not exceeding twelve years, shall be valid unless such mortgage or lease is for consideration and for tarwad necessity or benefit.

(3) Nothing contained in this section shall be deemed to restrict the power of the karnavan to grant, in the usual course of management, for a period not exceeding twelve years, any lease without premium returnable wholly or in part, or the renewal of an existing lease.

Debt
incurred by karnavan when acting as tarwad.

34. No debt contracted or mortgage without possession executed by a karnavan shall bind the tarwad unless the debt is contracted or the mortgage is executed, for tarwad necessity.

Maintenance
of members
of tarwad.

35. Every member of a tarwad, whether living in the tarwad house or not, shall be entitled to maintenance consistent with the income and the circumstances of the tarwad.

26. Any borrower may by a registered document give Borrower's signature and seal required.

37. The provisions of this Chapter shall apply to every tenant possessing separate premises as if it were a tenement.

CHAPTER VI

References

35. (1) Any taxonid represented by the majority of its major members may claim to take its share of all the properties of the taxonid over which it has power of disposal and separate from the taxonid:

Provided that no tawashi shall claim to be divided from the taward during the lifetime of an ancestor, contrary to such tawashi and to any other tawashi or tawashi of the taward, except with the consent of such ancestor, if she is a member of the taward.

(3) The shore obtained by the treasure shall be taken by it with the incidents of herred property.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this Chapter, a male member of a tarwad or a female member thereof without any living child or descendant in the female line, shall be deemed to be a tawishi if he or she has no living female ascendant who is a member of the tarwad.

33. Notwithstanding anything contained in section 35, any member of a tarwad who has changed his or her religion may claim or be compelled by any other member of the tarwad, to take his or her share of all the tarwad properties over which it has power of disposal and separate from the tarwad.

40. (1) In the case referred to in section 38, the tawashi shall be entitled to such share of the tarwad properties as would fall to the tawashi if a division per capita were made among all the members of the tarwad then living.

(2) In the case referred to in section 32, the member who claims or is compelled to divide from the tawad, shall be entitled to such share of the tawad property as would fall to such member if a division per capita were made among all the members of the tawad then living.

41. The provisions of this Chapter shall apply to every taxward possessing separate properties as if it were a taxward.

CHAPTER VII.

IMPARTIBLE TAXWARDS.

Division
taxwards to be impartible shall be registered as partible.

42. (1) Every taxward included in the Schedule shall be an impartible taxward and the provisions of Chapter VI shall not apply to such taxward unless and until it is registered as a partible taxward.

(2) Not less than two-thirds of the major members of a taxward referred to in sub-section (1) may at any time present a petition to the Collector for the registration of the taxward as partible.

(3) Such petition shall be in such form and contain such particulars as may be prescribed.

(4) If, after giving notice to all the major members of the taxward and making such inquiry as he deems fit, the Collector is satisfied that not less than two-thirds of the major members of the taxward have signed the petition with their free consent and desire the registration of the taxward as partible, he shall register the taxward as partible.

(5) On such registration, the provisions of Chapter VI shall apply to such taxward.

Division
of taxwards as impartible.

43. (1) Not less than two-thirds of the major members of a taxward may, at any time, present a petition to the Collector for the registration of the taxward as impartible.

(2) Such petition shall be in such form and contain such particulars as may be prescribed.

(3) If, after giving notice to all the major members of the taxward and making such inquiry as he deems fit, the Collector is satisfied that not less than two-thirds of the major members of the taxward have signed the petition with their free consent and desire the registration of the taxward as impartible, he shall register the taxward as impartible.

(4) On such registration, the provisions of Chapter VI shall not apply to such taxward unless and until the registration is cancelled under section 44.

44. (1) Not less than two-thirds of the major members of a church registered as separable under section 43 may at any time present a petition to the Collector for the cancellation of such registration.

(2) Such petition shall be in such form and contain such particulars as may be prescribed.

(3) If, after giving notice to all the major members of the church and making such enquiry as he deems fit, the Collector is satisfied that not less than two-thirds of the major members of the church have signed the petition with their free consent and desire the cancellation of the registration, he shall cancel such registration.

45. The Collector shall, for the purposes of this Chapter, have the same powers as are vested in a court under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, when trying a suit, in respect of the following matters, namely:—

(a) enforcing the attendance of any person and examining him on oath or affirmation;

(b) compelling the production of documents; and

(c) issuing commissions for the examination of witnesses, and any proceeding before the Collector under this Chapter shall be deemed to be a judicial proceeding.

46. The order of the Collector registering a church as separable under section 42 or registering a church as inseparable under section 43 or cancelling such registration under section 44, shall be final and shall not be questioned in any civil court.

47. The Collector shall keep a register of all petitions presented to him under sections 42, 43 and 44 and of all orders passed by him on such petitions and shall, at all reasonable times, allow search to be made in such register and shall, on payment of the prescribed fee, give a copy, certified under his hand, of any entry therein.

CHAPTER VIII.

MISCELLANEOUS.

48. Where a person bequeaths or makes a gift of any property to, or purchases any property in the name of, his wife alone or his wife and one or more of his children by such wife, together, such property shall, unless a contrary intention appears from the will or deed of gift or purchase or from the conduct of the parties, be taken as movable property by the wife, her sons and daughters by such person and the lineal descendants of such daughters in the female line :

Provided that in the event of partition of the property taking place under Chapter VI, the property shall be divided on the stirpital principle, the wife being entitled to a share equal to that of a son or daughter.

Notes.

49. (1) The Local Government may make rules consistent with this Act to carry into effect the purposes thereof.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for—

(a) all matters expressly required or allowed by this Act to be prescribed; and

(b) the procedure to be followed in respect of applications under Chapter VII.

(3) All rules made under this section shall be published in the Port St. George Gazette and on such publication shall have effect as if enacted in this Act.

Repeals.

50. Nothing contained in this Act shall—

(a) be deemed to confer any rights on the parties to or the issue of any marriage which is dissolved before this Act comes into force, or

(b) be deemed to affect any rule of Marumakkattayam law, custom or usage, except to the extent expressly laid down in this Act.
